“Vote for a Better Life”
14-22.11.2018, Murzasichle, Poland

The goal of our project is to increase civic activity, broaden knowledge about democracy, rights and civil liberties and raise European awareness. Working methods planned to be used during the project are workshops, presentations, discussions, meetings, evaluation activities, teamwork, discussions, brainstorming, all of them are based on the principles of non-formal education. The basic principle of our project is the active participation of participants in all stages of the project. The project includes two activities: APV - preparatory visit and International Youth Exchange. The project will be attended by 40 participants and leaders from the Visegrad countries - Poland, Slovakia, Czech Republic and Hungary. The long-term result of the project is to greatly raise the civic activity of young people and supporting the process of building a civil society. Exchange activities will be carried out on 14 -22 November 2018 in Murzasichle, Poland.
