Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

FRAMTIDSTÅGET

General info:

Date: 7 - 15 August 2019

Location: Stockholm, Sweden

Nature of the project: Mobility of Youth Workers (Training Course)

Host and organizer: Föreningen Framtidståget, Sweden

Financing: The project is co-funded by the Erasmus+ programme of the European Union

Description of the project:

Peace can most simply be described as the absence of war, however, nowadays peace researchers and experts most frequently apply the concept of “positive peace” which is more than just an absence of war. Positive peace aims at accomplishing freedoms, rights and equality as a means of guaranteeing sustainable peace without racism, exploitation and other forms of a barrier to equal opportunities. Positive peace is a constant process and requires active peaceful measures. The project “Peace Puzzle” has the aim of building the capacity of youth workers and youth leaders in Europe to successfully promote the culture of positive peace among young people.

More specific objectives of the training course are:

- Developing participants’ skills in designing youth-activities aimed at promoting positive peace;
- Equipping participants with competencies in facilitating non-formal education activities that promote peace;
- Creating a platform for networking, experience and methods sharing in the field of promoting positive peace.

Participants’ profile:

Potential project participants will include:

- People who are professionally or voluntarily engaged in working with young people or are youth leaders;
- Aged 18 and over.
- Interested and passionate about peace, inclusion, intercultural dialogue, respect for diversity, and human rights;
- Willing to develop their competencies in facilitating non-formal activities for young people and designing activities & projects to promote peace;

The project will focus mostly on youth work beginners who have less than 2 years’ experience of professional youth work.

Partners’ Responsibilities:

Participants preparation:

- Assisting participants to prepare a presentation about what their sending organizations do in the field of promoting positive peace (human rights, intercultural dialogue, diversity, inclusion, non-violence);
- Help participants to prepare to demonstrate/lead a tool/activity aimed at promoting positive peace during the project either developed or used by the sending organizations.

Selection of participants:

To facilitate your work of participants’ selection, we have prepared a poster (attached to the email) that you can use for your selection process.

The deadline for selecting participants is Friday the 31st of May.

We would kindly ask you to ensure that selected participants buy tickets and fill in participation form by the 5th of June on the latest.
